

Climate action in language education – enroll here: https://bit.ly/BC_CALE

<https://www.britishcouncil.org/climate-connection> - the British Council website with resources, podcasts, teaching materials and competitions.

REFERENCES AND FURTHER READING

Maley, A (2017) Teacher in Integrating global issues in the creative English language classroom, British Council.

<https://curious.earth/blog/climate-change-quotes/> – An article containing 30 of the most impactful climate change quotes.

<https://eltfootprint.org/> – A website for ELT teachers that can be explored using the criteria suggested in the course.

<https://eltsustainable.org/> – A website for ELT teachers that can be explored using the criteria suggested in the course.

<https://www.ecoschools.global/> – A website for teachers interested in environmental education that can be explored using the criteria suggested in the course.

Extra links and resources

<https://www.teachingenglish.org.uk/article/integrating-global-issues-creative-english-language-classroom> – A free, downloadable publication which aims at enabling learners to think creatively about global issues, environmental issues included.

<https://www.plt.org/educator-tips/top-ten-benefits-environmental-education/> – An article on how learners benefit from environmental education.

<https://www.theguardian.com/environment/2019/oct/16/guardian-language-changes-climate-environment> – The article in which the Guardian announced the changes in climate terminology.

<https://unesdoc.unesco.org/ark:/48223/pf0000233083> – Not just hot air: putting climate change education into practice - A free, downloadable publication from the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organisation.

<https://www.teachingenglish.org.uk/article/environmental-problems> – A lesson plan for teenagers and adults at level B1.